

Oromocto High School located in Oromocto, New Brunswick, Canada. It is the one of the largest high schools in New Brunswick and offers programs of study in English and French immersion for early and late French immersion students. OHS boasts a vibrant athletics and extra curricular program that offers opportunity for all students. We have an International Room where students can meet to study, have lunch, and participate in events and activities. OHS is proud to offer all NBISP students a free membership to the CFB Gagetown Fitness Centre, a state-of-the-art facility that includes a climbing wall and swimming pool with a 40 foot water slide. The school has a newly remodeled 350 seat teaching theater.

OROMOCTO COMMUNITY

Oromocto is a Canadian town in Sunbury County, New Brunswick. This town is located on the west bank of the Saint John River at the mouth of the Oromocto River, approximately 20 kilometres southeast of Fredericton. Oromocto High School is a large school serving a diverse and engaging community with strong ties to our military community and CFB Gagetown and our community ties to our urban and rural towns and villages. The growth of Oromocto to its present size is directly related to the development of CFB Gagetown as a military training establishment. The town has plenty to offer with a full-service marina, small-craft aquatic centre, golf course, nature trails, museums, shopping, dining, parks and open spaces.
