

Townsvie School is a brand new school, we opened our doors on January 12, 2015. Our school is located in Woodstock, New Brunswick. We offer programs of study for English, Early French Immersion and Late French Immersion. Our student population is very diverse and represents a multi-cultural community, where we have students who come from 25 different countries. There are many activities to keep students involved, they range from athletics to diverse types of committees and extra curricular activities. To extend the learning - our school participates in extra physical education opportunities outside the school, activities include downhill skiing, cross country skiing, sliding, curling, bowling, & swimming. Townsvie School is a great place to be. Come join us.

WOODSTOCK COMMUNITY

Woodstock is a town in Carleton County, New Brunswick, Canada on the Saint John River, 103 km upriver from Fredericton at the mouth of the Meduxnekeag River. It is near the Canada–United States border and Houlton, Maine and the intersection of Interstate 95 and the Trans-Canada Highway making it a transportation hub. It is also a service centre for the potato industry and for more than 26,000 people in the nearby communities of Hartland, Florenceville-Bristol, Centreville and Bath. Carleton County is the home of international headquarters of McCain Foods which employs people from around the world. Woodstock has recently added a large Civic Centre called the Ayr Motor Centre that the community enjoys for many sports including hockey, skating, indoor soccer, zumba, pickle ball and swimming. It also has a gym and a free indoor walking track. The New Brunswick Community College has a campus downtown Woodstock offering post-secondary programs in the areas of Business, Health, IT, Social Sciences and Trades.
