

ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHING

Designed in partnership with the New Brunswick Department of Education and Early Childhood Development and the Second Language Research Institute of Canada (at the University of New Brunswick), this course is divided into six (6) asynchronous learning modules, each of which stands on its own as part of the collection.

This course will cover strategies and practices to support the personalized growth and engagement of Multilingual Language Learners (MLLs). All teachers who work with MLLs will find these modules useful and inspiring to their practice.

Module 1:

New Brunswick EAL Curriculum

- Vision and Values
- Overarching Pedagogy
- Foundational Elements
- Assessment and Grading

Module 2:

The Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

- CEFR Overview
- The Action-Oriented Approach
- Language Development Considerations

Module 3:

Classroom Strategies

- Routines
- Classroom Set-Up
- Themes

Module 4:

Reading Instruction

- The Reading Instruction Process
- Guided Reading
- Reading Resources

Module 5:

Writing Instruction

- Genres of Writing
- Teaching the Writing Process

Module 6:

Formative Assessment

- Assessment Overview
- Assessment for Learning
- Assessment as Learning

SELF-PACED COURSE WITH A FACILITATOR

CERTIFICATE OF COURSE COMPLETION

■ COURSE FEE

$30 per module or $150 per participant for complete course (NBOSP partner)

$60 per module or $300 per participant for complete course (non-NBOSP partner)

* Certain discounts may apply. Please contact an Education Specialist or email aei@gnb.ca for more information.